19)

20 The United States, by Assistant U.S. Attorney Brigid Martin, and the defendant,
21 Vontino Alexander, through Jerome Matthews, counsel of record, hereby ask the Court to extend 22 the post-hearing briefing deadline to March 1, 2013, to allow time for the court reporter to 23 transcribe the hearing.

24 1. On January 31 and February 12, 2013, the Court conducted an evidentiary hearing on 25 defendant's motion to suppress evidence.

26 2. At the close of the hearing, the Court ordered post-hearing briefing including a
27 statement of facts and proposed findings of fact.

STIP. AND ORDER
CR 12-0118 YGR

1 3. The parties requested and received an expedited transcript from the court reporter from
2 the January 31 hearing.

3 4. The court reporter relayed to the government on February 13 that she would not be
4 able to provide an expedited transcript in less than seven (7) days from receipt of an official
5 contract request.

6 5. Assuming the government gets supervisory and budgetary permission for the 7 expedited requested today, February 14, the earliest that the court reporter could provide the 8 transcript would be February 21, one day before the briefing is currently due.

9 6. Therefore, the parties accordingly ask the Court to extend the briefing deadline one
10 week to March 1, 2013, to allow time for the Court reporter to complete the transcripts and the 11 parties to review the transcript and prepare their briefs.

12 7. Because the defendant's motion to suppress is still pending before the Court, time
13 under the Speedy Trial Act "shall be excluded" under 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1)(D).

14 8. Accordingly, the parties ask the Court to reset the briefing deadline to March 1, 2013.

19 GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, it is ordered that:

20 1. The deadline for post-hearing briefing for both parties in this case shall be extended one
21 week and reset to March 1, 2013, to allow for preparation of the transcripts by the court reporter,
22 and receipt and review of the transcripts by the parties. SO ORDERED.
